

Creative Learning Activities

Salter's Hill Charity believes that all individuals should have the opportunity to be engaged in meaningful daytime activity which will develop skills and can increase the ability to obtain work experience and employment. It is also the chance to try something new.

As an organisation we are keen to meet individual wishes and respond to any requests or needs as we develop the service.

How often do the sessions take place?

Sessions are available for whole or half days and take place several times in a week. For timetable see contact below.

Community Involvement:

Creative Learning activities encourage community involvement. Currently these include:

- Sales of craft and woodwork products
- Taking part in one day agriculture shows
- Participation in Community projects.
- A variety of employment opportunities.

Who is the service for?

- Any individual wishing to learn new skills and develop or maintain an interest.
- Individuals who have attended further education colleges and wish to maintain their interest and build on their experience.

What activities are currently available?

- Gardening & Horticulture
- Land & Livestock
- Woodwork
- Expression Through Drama
